

The webinar series of IPERION HS is a key source of state-of-the-art information on heritage science research, facilities, policy and impact. It contributes to the development of a vibrant heritage science community, and is intended for anyone involved in interdisciplinary heritage research.

Register here: <http://www.iperionhs.eu/webinar-registration/>

21.04.2021, 10-11 am

Webinar #1: What is IPERION HS - An introduction into heritage science and the structure, the offer and the facilities of IPERION HS

Speakers: Matija Strlič and Jana Striova

04.05.2021, 3-4 pm

Webinar #2: FIXLAB - Ivory research, followed by hints and tips on FIXLAB access
Moderated by Matija Strlič

Speakers: Ina Reiche and Rémi Petitcol

01.06.2021, 3-4 pm

Webinar #3: MOLAB - Islamic manuscripts, followed by hints and tips on MOLAB access
Moderated by Matija Strlič

Speakers: Kristine Rose-Beers and David Buti

06.07.2021, 3-4 pm

Webinar #4: ARCHLAB - Ghent Altarpiece, followed by hints and tips on ARCHLAB access
Moderated by Matija Strlič

Speakers: Astrid Harth and María Martin Gil

14.09.2021, 3-4 pm

Webinar #5: Built Heritage Research Services
Moderated by Matija Strlič

Organized by Ralf Killian

12.10.2021, 3-4 pm

Webinar #6: Arts and Humanities Research Services
Moderated by Matija Strlič

Organized by JoAnn Cassar

09.11.2021, 3-4 pm

Webinar #7: Palaeontology Research Services
Moderated by Matija Strlič

Organized by Daniel Garcia

07.12.2021, 3-4 pm

Webinar #8: Archaeology Research Services
Moderated by Matija Strlič

Organized by Gill Campbell

IPERION HS formula for webinars short interactive practical vibrant